terly without foundation, and must be attrib-uted to some misapprehension on the part of In regard to Mr. Corwin's treatment of the clerks in his Department, I know nothing; but, if he has treated with proper consideration any Democrats in office under him, it is only following Mr. Walker's example in his treatment of the Whig clerks under him. Mr. Walker had nothing proscriptive about him. He has too much of the milk of human kindness in him to do injustice to anybody; and I am glad to learn from one of your correspondents, that Mr. Cor-win has exhibited similar good qualities. But it seems to be a matter of complaint against Mr. Corwin, that he has promoted to the "chief clerkship of the Treasury Department" one who was "true and faithful to Mr. Walker," so much so, that he allowed him an extra compensation for extra services. The gentleman alluded to, I suppose, is Mr. George Harrington.

"Commentator" does not state whether Mr. Harrington is a Whig or a Democrat, and I shall not stop to inquire. If he served Mr. Walker so faithfully, as did also certain Democrats spoken of, Mr. Corwin had reason to infer not only their ability to discharge any duty imposed on them, but also their fidelity to him as well as to Mr. Walker. I know Mr. Har-rington as a public officer and not as a partizan—and I am bound to say, that I know of no one more prompt, more efficient, more capable, and more ready to discharge every duty appertaining to the office he holds than Mr. Harrington; and Mr. Corwin, or any other Secretary of the Treasury, would feel the loss most severely, if he should determine to dispense with the services of such a man.

As a Democrat, I admire the character of My Walker, and approve of his anti-proscriptive spirit. But still, on the great principle of revenue and incidental protection to our domestic industry, I like Mr. Corwin's doctrines better than the free-trade notions of Mr. Walker. Without regard to party-predilections, there-fore, I approve of what I deem correct principles wherever I find them. On this ground, too, approve of President Fillmore's Administra tion, because he has shown his determination to maintain the compromises of the Constitution, to faithfully execute the laws, and to do all in his power to hand down to posterity the Union of the States, as we received it from our Revolutionary fathers. I do not, therefore, admire such attacks upon any member of an Administration, which is thus engaged in dis-charging its duty to the country, and more especially when a principal ground of complaint is the keeping in or the turning out of capable and faithful clerks from office. A DEMOCRAT.

[Correspondence of the New York Herald.]

Captain Victor Ker.

To the Editors of the N. Y. Herald: In your paper of Saturday you say that Victor Ker, one of the persons shot by the blood-thirsty Moorish Castilians of Havana, "was the son of Dr. Ker of New Orleans, who was a surgeon in the British army during the battle of New Orleans." So far from that being the case, Dr. Ker wa surgeon in the American army during that battle, and was the right-hand man and bosom friend of General Jackson, before, during and after the war. His son, William H. Ker, then eighteen years of age, commanded a battery of two guns during the memorable 8th of January, 1815, and signatized himself by his cool bravery and the havor he made in the ranks of the ene my. He was afterwards appointed Postmaster of New Orleans by General Jackson.

Another son of Dr. Ker is an officer in the United States army. His christian name is Croghan, so called after the hero of Sandusky. A grandson, named Wilmer Shields, whose father was also engaged in the battle of New Or-Virginia extraction, I believe; and a better American, a purer patriot, a more sincere friend, or a more thorough-going and untiring democratic republican than he, never walked the earth, with "the human face divine" under the front part of his hat. Having resided in New Orleans some years after the first of January, 1832, I am enabled to speak from the card, and correct this mistake which you made yesterday. CHARLES WEBB. Yours,

THE OLD DOMINION .- How it gladdens us to hear of her prosperity and brightening prospects! "The papers from every section of Virginia," says the Richmond Republican, "are responding most heartily to the call for the assemblage of a Direct Trade Convention, in this city, on the 10th of September. It will be a great occasion, and we anticipate a great crowd. No measure that Virginia has taken for the last quarter of a century has been of such practical importance to her interests. The signs of the times show that Virginia is waking up in earnest. Pushing forward her canal; boring a hole through the Blue Ridge, which will be the greatest tunnel in America; advancing her Danville and Tennessee railroads; making a new republican constitution; and now striking for a direct trade by steam with Europe! Bravo for the Old Dominion! Let those who will, brand her as a dotard and a submissionist. The course she is taking is far better than secession. She goes for addition and multiplication; not for subtraction and division."

MR. WEBSTER .- In reply to certain accusations against this gentleman, on the ground of alleged pecuniary shortcomings, the Terre Haute Daily Express says: "This is a pitiful complaint, but it will do for those who root for small potatoes. One thing is pretty certain, that 'Black Dan,' in fumbling for his change, never mistook the public pocket for his own." This we believe is true, and, as things go, must be set down to his honor; though his friends deserve praise also, for Mr. Webster does not pray in vain that he may not be led into temptation. They fill his pockets by subscription, supply him with a carriage and horses by subscription, make him a Presidential candidate by subscription, and will no doubt finally bury him by subscription, build him a monument by subscription, and subscribe to a record for the enlightenment of future generations, declaring him the only disinterested patriot of his day and generation. Sic itur ad astra.

SCRIPTURAL MANUAL.—By Chas. Simmons A SCRIFTURAL MANUAL.—By Chas. Simmons.

"HE DESIGN of this book is, to furnish proof texts, alphabetically and systematically arranged, on all the important topics introduced in the Old and New Testaments. Great care has evidently been taken in selecting and classifying these texts. They fill a 12mo. volume of over 500 pages, arranged under no less than 750 distinct topics, with an average of perhaps half a dozen texts to a topic. The book is furnished with a full index, which reatly increases its usefulness, and is in every respect not only a very valuable kind of work, but undoubtedly the best of its class extant.

Were it generally possessed, carefully studied, and faith-ot only a very valuable kind of work, but undoubtedly the best of its class extant.

Were it generally possessed, carefully studied, and faithfully used, the result would be the introduction of a newera in biblical knowledge. It is commended to all clergymen, to students, to families, and especially to Sabbathschool teachers. The good paper, fair type, and mechanical execution of the work, are worthy of its contents. The second stereotyped edition of this book, being its twenty-afth edition (issued in 1850), is a great improvement on former editions, in the number and arrangement of topics. The fact that 41,000 copies of it have been published within a few years, to meet the gradually increasing denand for it, is a gratifying proof of the estimation in which it is held.

Mr. J. E. BOUSH—Dear Sir: I feel it a duty to make MR. J. E. BOUSH.—Dear Sir: I feel it a duty to make known the benefit I have derived from Dr. Hampton's VEGETABLE TINCTURE. For a number of years I suffered from disease, but to a greater degree for the last three years. One of the forms of my disease was dyspep-From this dreadful malady I suffered to such an extent that life was really a burden. The attack of it on me was different to that on any other person of whom I have heard; at times it was like the palpitation of the heart; there was a constant thumping and beating without intermission about the region of my heart, chest, and stomach; some of the attacks would last for weeks; my stomach was much distended, with constant pain, great weakness, and constipation of the bowels. I could not eat the most simple food without pain. I also suffered greatly from disease of the kidneys, with constant pain in the back, that I could walk only with great difficulty. I tried nearly all of the most celebrated patent medicines of the day, but found no relief. I had also the best medical attendance. One of my physicians frankly told me it cal attendance. One of my physicians frankly told me it was of no use for me to be paying him for advice, as he could do me no good. I gave up almost in despair, and thought my disease certainly incurable.

At this juncture I heard of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. I refused to give it a trial, although persuaded by my friends, until my son purchased a few bottles, and requested me to try it; after taking it a few times, it had a most happy effect on me; my confidence increased, and after taking three bottles, my dyspepsia, or disease of the stomach, was nearly if not entirely cured. I now feel myself a new man, and in better health than for years. Since my cure I have recommended the tincture to a number of my friends, who have also been rerieved by it. Some of the cures have been as rapid and equally wonderful as mine.

I present my respects to Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray, the proprietors of this valuable medicine, and say to them its value is above price; and from my cure, and what I have seen of its effects on others, I shall ever feel it my duty to recommend it to the suffering. I have no doubt many valuable lives will be prolonged by its use. I hope the afflicted will cast aside their prejudices and give it a trial. Yours most respectfully,

John Luke.

The above is extracted from a letter from a gentleman sixty years of age, and of high character. He says: "I have given but a faint idea of my sufferings; I feel inadequate to the task." We also have received, in the last few days, letters from two of our most worthy and well-known citizens, giving two remarkable cures of spinal disease. But yesterday one of the oldest merchants reported that he was cured of neuralgia of the head, of years standing, and so bad that his teeth fell out from its effects. Call and see letters. Was there ever on many years standing, and so bad that his teeth fell out from its effects. Call and see letters. Was there ever so many cures, wonderful cures, made by any other medicine. All we sak of the sfilicted is that they try Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, the great purifier of the blood and cure for all chronic diseases, as dyspepsia, rheumatism, serofula, and all complaints of the stomach, bowers, &c.

WILLIAM H. FAULKNER, Sign of the Shirt, south side of Penna. avenue, respectfully in-vites the citizens of Washington, vites the citizens of Washington, and all others who desire to have SHIRTS of all sizes, qualities, pattern, or price, to call upon him at his Shirt Factory, opposite the United States Hotel; where he will execute their orders, and warrants his shirts, which are manufactured by the Seanstresses of Washington only, to be good fits and good workmanship. William H. Faulkner has 30 Washington seamstresses manship. William H. Faulkner has 30 Washington seamstresses constantly employed in making shirts, the demand for which has greatly increased since they have been worn and tested by members of Congress and other citizens who have purchased them. He would respectfully submit that an establishment like his, which gives regular employment, at fair living prices, to a large number of respectable and industrious females, is deserving of liberal encouragement from the citizens of Washington especially, who are bound by principles of reciprocity and interest to encourage their own seamstresses, manufacturers, and mechanics.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE, AND THE BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

Owing to the late revolutions and counter-revolution among the nations of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet," the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hithert unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call reewed attention to the works they publish, and the veriow prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

The London Quarterly Review,

low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,

THE EDINBURGH REVIEW,

THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW,

THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW,

THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, AND BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical: "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiatical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir Davie Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best feature of both, as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beau of both, as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, imm diately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful epies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an eact fac simile of the Edinburgh edition.

Amherst College, Dec. 25, 1848.

Mr. Robert Scars—Dear Sir: I have looked over the er tire series of your valuable publications with much is terest and profit; and am quite surprised at the amou-of literary labor you have performed, and the research nust have cost you to obtain so many fine illustration while you have an active superintendence of an extensiv business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral an business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and can-not but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluga-the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even the kneading troughs of our kitchens. May you live long the kneaming trooghe of our kitchess. May you live for, to follow your plans.

Respectfully and sincerely, your obliged servant, EDWARD HITCHCOCK.

*The works alluded to as having been examined anrecommended, are as follows: A new and popular Pictoria Description of the United States, Pictorial History of the American Revolution, Sermes and Skatches of Continents Description of the United States, Pictorial History of the American Revolution, Scenes and Sketches of Continental Europe, Description of Great Britain and Ireland, Pictorial Family Annual, Tressury of Knowledge, Information for the People, The Family Instructor, Pictorial Sunday Book, Bible Biography, Bible History, and second series of The Wonders of the World.

Gentlemen of respectability and of good address wanted to sell the above popular Pictorial Works. Full particulars of the principles and profits of the Agency will be given on application either personally or by later. The postage must in all cases be paid.

This well known and extensive establishment invites Merchants, Manufacturers, and Bankers, to an investigation of its system, and gratuitous test of its records of the standing and responsibility citraders in the U. States. Our increased patronage has enabled us, during the past year, to open offices in Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis, and New Orleans; these, in connection with our long established offices in Boston, New York, and Baltimore, emble us to offer facilities and advantages which time and experience alone could accumulate, and which we believe are unequalled.

We are prepared to make collections in any of the States, Territories, Canada, England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Germany, and in any commercial port of the world, and will pay particular attention to old and doubtful debts, in the collection of which class we have extraordinary facilities, and have been unusually successful.
